

Bridge - The Game That Gives Back

Arizona Foundation for Women Receives ACBL Charity Foundation NABC $5000 Donation

The ACBL Charity Foundation provides the host committee at each NABC with $5000 to donate to a local charity. In Phoenix, the local committee, with chair Joanne Titow, selected the Arizona Foundation for Women (AFW) as the recipient of the funds. Mesha Davis, the group's CEO, was on hand Monday to receive the donation from Titow, outgoing ACBL Charity Foundation President Nancy Strohmmer, and Phoenix Tournament Chair Ken Titow.

Explaining the AFW's mission, Davis said, "We advance the status of Arizona's women through research, advocacy and philanthropy to ensure their safety, health and economic independence."

Davis said the AFW conducts major research projects that allows it work with legislators to promote policies that help with their mission.

"Our broad policy goals include the reduction of domestic violence and human trafficking, the promotion of equal pay, and increasing access to healthcare for women, especially for lower-income women."

Mesha Davis (third from left), CEO of the Arizona Foundation for Women, receives a donation of $5000 from Phoenix Tournament Chair Ken Titow, Phoenix Charity Chair Joanne Titow and ACBL Charity Foundation President Nancy Strohmmer.