

Bridge - The Game That Gives Back

Honor Flight Nevada and Casa de Vida Reno Receive ACBL Charity Foundation NABC $5000 Donation

At each NABC, the ACBL Charity Foundation contributes $5000 to a qualified local charity with the local tournament committee deciding the recipient. At the Spring Reno NABC, the $5000 gift was split between two charities chosen by the District 21 NABC staff: Honor Flight Nevada and Casa de Vida Reno.

Honor Flight Nevada provides veterans with all expense-paid travel for Nevada Veterans to visit memorials and museums for veterans of all wars and conflicts. Also under their umbrella is the nonprofit Quilts of Valor that provides patriotic quilts to veterans that take the Honor Flight. Their website is honorflightNV.org.

ACBL Charity Foundation President Nancy Strohmmer presents a $2500 check to Jim Forbus and Dawn Forbus of Honor Flight Nevada. With them are Reno Tournament Chair Jackie Zayac and Reno NABC Charity Committee Chair Diane Todd.

Maddy Browne and Katie Metz of Casa de Vida Reno (center) receive a $2500 check from ACBL Charity Foundation President Nancy Strohmmer (left) and Reno Tournament Chair Jackie Zayac and Reno NABC Charity Committee Chair Diane Todd (right).

them in their efforts to find a loving, adoptive family for their child. Their website is casadevidareno.org.

Casa de Vida Reno is a home and support services organization for pregnant young women. They provide residents with a safe home, caring staff, 24-hour supervision and assistance, nutritious meals, pregnancy and childbirth education, social service assistance and so much more. Their goal is to build healthy families either by helping residents to become the best parents possible or by supporting